

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT BUCKET LIST

As an international student, you arrive at UGA prepared to IMMERSE yourself in the UGA experience. We invite you to explore the myriad of resources and opportunities here, designed to nurture your personal and academic growth as you continue your education as a valued member of the Bulldog Nation!

Belonging & Community

- Attend International Student Orientation!
- Attend an International Coffee Hour event.
- Join a student club or organization.
- Celebrate International Education Month in November!
- Attend an ISL Cultural Night event.
- Go to the International Street Festival.
- Take a selfie with Hairy Dawg.

Academics

- Get to know your academic advisor.
- Go to your professors' office hours to get academic support and build professional relationships.
- Book an appointment with an Academic Coach to create an actionable plan for success.
- Schedule a free peer tutoring appointment through the Office of Student Success and Achievement.
- Attend a guest lecture or event hosted by your School/College.
- Attend the Study Abroad Fair to explore study-abroad opportunities.
- Visit the Center for Undergraduate Research Opportunities (CURO) to learn how to engage in faculty-led research.

Well-being

- Visit well-being.uga.edu to explore UGA's virtual and in-person well-being resources.
- Attend a free mental health workshop hosted by Counseling and Psychiatric Services (CAPS).
- Participate in an activity offered by Recreational Sports.
- Climb the rock wall or swim at the Ramsey Student Center.

Career

- Attend an Arch Ready workshop hosted by the Career Center.
- Attend the Career Center's Part-Time Job and Internship Fair.
- Connect with a mentor through the UGA Mentor Program.
- Take a professional headshot at the Career Center's Professional Photo Booth.

What's Next?

- Check out the pathway and bucket list that corresponds with your year in school.
- Schedule a quick chat with a Transition Leader to learn more strategies for navigating your first year at UGA as an international student.
- Participate in International Student Life's graduation ceremony!